Notice 2000-01

TO: The Chief Executive Officer of each financial institution and others concerned
in the Eleventh Federal Reserve District

SUBJECT

Appointments to the Thrift Institutions Advisory Council

DETAILS

The Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System has announced the appointment of four new members to its Thrift Institutions Advisory Council and has designated a new president and vice president of the council for 2000.

The council is an advisory group made up of twelve representatives from thrift institutions. The panel was established by the Board in 1980 and includes savings and loan, savings bank, and credit union representatives. The council meets with the Board of Governors at least three times a year to discuss developments relating to thrift institutions, the housing industry, mortgage finance, and certain regulatory issues.

The new council president for 2001 is Thomas S. Johnson, Chairman and CEO, GreenPoint Bank, New York, New York. The new vice president is Mark H. Wright, President and CEO, USAA Federal Savings Bank, San Antonio, TX.

The seven new members, named for two-year terms beginning January 1, 2001, are as follows:

Tom R. Dorety
President and CEO
Suncoast Schools Federal Credit Union
Tampa, FL

Cornelius D. Mahoney
Chairman, President, and CEO
Woronoco Savings Bank
Westfield, MA

Clarence Zugelter
President, CEO, and Chairman of the Board
First Federal Bank, F.S.B.
Kansas City, MO
