

Economic

EDUCATION

at the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas

Classroom Resources

Order materials on the Dallas Fed web site, www.dallasfed.org (click on Economic Education), or by phone at (214) 922-5254.

Building Wealth: A Beginner's Guide to Securing Your Financial Future

Personal financial education workbook, CD-ROM and suggested classroom lessons that cover budgeting, saving and investing, and controlling debt. Workbook is available in Spanish.

Everyday Economics Series

Colorful booklets explaining fundamental economic concepts such as capital, labor and money.

Free Enterprise: The Economics of Cooperation

Primer on free market economics examining how communication, coordination and cooperation interact to make free markets work.

Economic Letter

Publication providing commentary on important trends and policy issues.

Southwest Economy

Publication containing regional information and data on current trends.

Annual Reports

Series of essays describing the role of globalization, capitalism, free enterprise and entrepreneurship in creating the world's most powerful economy.

www.federalreserveeducation.org

Interactive web site featuring an overview of the Fed, personal financial education and teacher resources.

The Fed Today

A 13-minute video that covers the Fed's history and explores the structure of the Fed as well as monetary policy, banking supervision, financial services and more.

Conferences

Check the Dallas Fed web site, www.dallasfed.org (click on Economic Education), for specific topics, dates and locations.

For High School Educators: Economic Summit

Two-day conference on relevant topics that can be translated into classroom instruction; held in Dallas.

Global Economic Forum

Two-day event on key issues that impact the global economy; hosted in San Antonio.

Economics/Personal Finance Workshops

One-day workshops, in collaboration with the Texas Council on Economic Education; offered at varying locations.

Personal Finance and Economics Conference in Louisiana and New Mexico

One-day workshop cohosted in Louisiana with Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta and Louisiana Council for Economic Education; cosponsored in New Mexico with Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City.

For College Audiences: Economic Forum for Faculty

One-day conference designed to benefit university and college faculty members and administrators in various academic areas, including economics, finance, business, public policy, political science and education.

More information at www.dallasfed.org

Educational Opportunities

Professional Development Workshops***

Sessions designed to provide professional development to secondary educators with an emphasis on personal finance education, the role of the Fed in the U.S. economy and more.

Evening at the Fed

Dinner and discussion for high school educators on a timely and important issue; offered in all four office locations.

ESP: Economic Scholars Program for Undergraduate Research

One-day forum offering undergraduate economics students the opportunity to discuss their independent research.

Student Board of Directors

Program for high school students offered at branch locations, bringing exposure to local economies and the Federal Reserve.

Essay Contest for High School Students

Contest for 11th and 12th grade students in the Eleventh Federal Reserve District to explore an economic topic and gain recognition and reward for their knowledge, creativity and composition skills.

Economics Boot Camp

Two-and-a-half-day workshop designed for teachers new to the subject of economics; offered in all four office locations.

Tours***

Take a close look at what the Fed does to keep the nation's banking system operating smoothly. To schedule a tour, visit our web site at www.dallasfed.org or call our tour line at (214) 922-5250 for Dallas, (915) 521-5259 for El Paso, (713) 483-3566 for Houston and (210) 978-1663 for San Antonio.

* Upon availability.

The Dallas Fed's Economic Education team offers information on the Federal Reserve's role in the economy, basic economic principles and personal financial education to high school, university and college educators and students as well as the general public.

Contact Information

MAIN OFFICE

Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas
2200 N. Pearl St. • Dallas • TX 75201
(214) 922-5276

EL PASO BRANCH

301 E. Main St. • El Paso • TX 79901
(915) 521-5248

HOUSTON BRANCH

1801 Allen Parkway • Houston • TX 77019
(713) 483-3637

SAN ANTONIO BRANCH

126 E. Nueva St. • San Antonio • TX 78204
(210) 978-1663

For more information on the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas economic education program, visit our web site at www.dallasfed.org. To keep up to date on Dallas Fed publications, activities and events, subscribe to our e-mail alert services, also available on the web site.