ECONOMICS

BOOT CAMP

Summer 2010

- Are you new to the role of teaching high school economics?
- Do you have little formal training in the discipline?
- Are you bewildered by the new vocabulary, graphs and charts?

If you answered yes to the above questions,
Economics Boot Camp is for you.

This two-and-a-half-day workshop is designed for economics teachers with little course-specific training or experience who want to gain a solid understanding of economic concepts and principles. Sessions will be led by economic education specialists and will focus on content from regular high school economics or free-enterprise classes. Every session will review effective teaching strategies.

Seating is limited. Please register early.
