

Stock Prices

Stock prices of companies with a significant presence in San Antonio shed 6.9 percent of their value from Jan. 19 to March 9, compared with a 0.8 percent decline in the S&P 500 over the same time (Chart 6). After peaking at an all-time high on Jan. 23, the San Antonio stock index plummeted nearly 13 percent before regaining some ground. Weakness was broad based across most industries, and energy, retail and manufacturing firms saw significant declines.
