Moderated by Carine Feyten, Chancellor, Texas Woman's University, CAC Chair

- What do you see as workforce needs and opportunities over the next few months?
 - As applicable, how are short-term credentials coming up in your organization's work or other community-wide workforce development efforts?
- Given the evolving funding landscape, what challenges or opportunities have occurred within your organizations and communities?
 - Are there ideas or solutions emerging that others could learn from? What collaborative approaches can we adopt to engage with local stakeholders and identify their most pressing needs and remain responsive?
- How have house prices and rental rates changed since the September 2024 meeting? Have there been any new developments in housing activity for low- and moderate-income communities in Council members' regions?
